

WAY TO BE USED IN WAR ON RUM RUNNERS

Fascism Is in Control of Bulgaria

Military Coup d'etat Is Complete Success—Other Countries Are Facing Revolutions.

Red Extremes Passed

By Universal Service.
Paris, June 10.—Fascism controls Bulgaria tonight with complete success as a result of a military coup d'etat.

All cabinet ministers have been imprisoned and the state revolutionized without the shedding of a drop of blood.

The anti-red movement is gaining a strong hold in the Balkans. While the Bulgarians is the only nation so far to follow Italy's example and make a fascist dictator of the country, there are indications that similar revolutions may soon be expected in Greece, Jugoslavia and even Roumania.

Chancellories are agitated. Where this tremendous reaction of anti-communism will stay is a question agitating chancellories today.

Diplomats everywhere realize that the real pressing danger of Europe now is not bolshevism but fascism, for the latter has been carried to extremes that even the reds wouldn't have dared.

It is openly stated by the chief fascists of Italy, France and Switzerland that their ultimate aim is a gigantic fascist union in Europe with a view to invading Russia to overthrow the reds.

Enthusiasm for New Rule.
Sofia, June 10.—The new Bulgarian government is firmly established and has been welcomed with great enthusiasm throughout the country.

No reaction appeared anywhere. The public is maintaining order and regular communications have been resumed.

The king has approved the entries of the coalition cabinet, with Professor Tsankoff, premier and minister of foreign affairs and war.

The new cabinet is supported by all the parties opposing the old government.

Agriarism Planned Plunder.
It is now discovered that on the day prior to the coup d'etat, the agrarian government planned to seize the capital, arresting all dangerous nonagrarians and allowing the peasant guards to seize and plunder Sofia, and establish an absolute dictatorship, which compelled leaders of the new government to hasten to establish themselves.

This was easy, because the entire army, the reserve officers and all other parties joined the movement.

The grandest demonstration ever seen in Sofia followed the usurpation showing Stamboulsky's dictatorship to have been unbearable.

A remarkable lack of violence was accorded agrarian leaders, although public indignation was unbounded. The new government is preserving the strictest discipline.

Young Wife Sues Aged HUSBAND for Divorce
Shenandoah, Ia., June 10.—Instead of a honeymoon in England, where the aged bridegroom claimed to be of a fine family, Mrs. Edna Allison says she was sent home from Omaha two weeks after the wedding, her trunk checked and keys mailed her and she found herself deserted.

The bride, who was Miss Edna Journey of New Market, is now suing Francis R. Allison for divorce and $500 alimony. The couple were married March 7, 1923, at the home of J. A. Cheney, justice of the peace, a number of Shenandoah society folks attending. The bridegroom was many years older than his pretty bride.

In her divorce suit she claims he represented himself to be worth $30,000, but that the checks written on the honeymoon were returned unpaid.

Fiancee Will Join Hunt for Missing Merchant
Tacoma, Wash., June 10.—All activities in Buckley, near here, were suspended today while the townpeople joined in a search for Washington Morris, wealthy retired merchant, who has been missing since Monday. Relatives of the missing man have abandoned hope that he will be found alive.

Mr. Morris was overcome by monoxide gas a few weeks ago while working on his automobile, and since that time he showed signs of amnesia, his relatives report. Among the searchers in Buckley today is Miss Florence Keeley of Auburn, formerly a Buckley school teacher, who was to have married Mr. Morris Thursday. The theory of the searchers is that Mr. Morris wandered off into the woods.

Doll, 45 Years Old, Is Slightly Out of Style
Defendant in a search for a doll, purchased in the village of Ney 45 years ago, is the property of 9-year-old Marion Hanna here. The doll formerly belonged to the child's mother, Mrs. Emery Hanna.

This doll of mine is no flapper," said Miss Hanna, who is just a sweet girl of 45 summers, no grizzly hair, nor wrinkles, but her dressers are just a little out of date."

Oriental Slays Pretty Girl Who Sought Convert

Memories of Sigel Murder in Chinatown Den Recalled by Killing of Physician's Assistant.

By Universal Service.
New York, June 10.—Memories of the murder of Elias Sigel, mission worker in a Chinatown den were recalled today, when Eugenia Lozade, Filipino, confessed that he had strangled to death pretty Blossom Martin, a physician's assistant.

As in the famous Sigel murder, for which Leon Ling was sought but never caught, it was the misguided urge of a pretty occidental girl trying to convert an orientalist to Christianity, only to have her interest mistaken for love. The blind rage at love's rejection, to be followed by swift death.

Tells of Murder.
Lozade, a squat, swarthy man, one whom the police referred to as an "ape man," a figure out of the story of the jungle, told his story in halting English today of how he had held the girl's young white throat in his brutal hands for nearly half an hour of murderous rage.

The girl's mother, Mrs. Harvey Martin of Troy, N. Y., weeping over the death of her child, told the story of her child's Christian interest in the Filipino, against which she had warned Blossom, crying, "I expected this. I knew he would kill her."

Discovery Was Dramatic.
The discovery of the girl's murder came in a dramatic manner. Blossom worked for Dr. George B. McAuliffe as an office assistant in his home. Lozade was a houseman in Dr. McAuliffe's employ.

In his confession, he told how, rejected by the girl, he had waited in the basement of the house, attacked her and strangled her to death.

Carries Body Away.
Trussing up the body with ropes Lozade covered it with a portier, then wrapped it in paper. With this bundle on his shoulder, the girl weighed 140 pounds, Lozade only 120, he staggered to the street corner and hailed a taxicab. He said he hoped to get the body to some friends in Elizabeth, N. J., and planned to throw it into a sewer in Elizabeth.

At this point the police take up the narrative.

The taxi driver felt "something warm and soft" in the bundle and called a policeman. Lozade was at ready on the boat which had started to pull out. The police sergeant shouted to persons on the ferry to "grab that man with the bundle."

Lozade made an effort to hurl the bundle overboard but was seized. He fought like a mad man, but was subdued. When the bundle was opened the girl's pretty head was revealed.

Mechanics Get Training in Russian Universities

Vladivostok, June 10.—The universities of Russia, including that at Vladivostok, now have facilities for the higher education of workmen.

The idea is to make engineers and other technical professional men out of mechanics. The best teachers have been engaged and the salaries paid are higher than in any of the other faculties. The classes are held in the evening, so as to give the workers engaged in the different government factories, and workshops a chance to attend.

Claims Meet Ruben's Shot; Opened Washington

Canada Takes Step in Controlling Its Foreign Affairs in Sending Delegation to U. S.

Alien Property Involved

By GEORGE F. AUTHIER, Washington Correspondent Omaha Bee.
Washington, June 10.—Despite the pledge exacted from Canada by the British home government not to appoint a Canadian minister at Washington until the imperial British conference has been held in London next October, the dominion government has demonstrated that it has taken an additional step forward in the direction of control of her own foreign affairs which may result in an understanding between the two governments on the St. Lawrence canal project.

Two Canadian ministers and other high officials arrived in Washington tonight for the purpose of taking up directly with American officials the question of difficulties arising between the two countries over property in the hands of both American and Canadian alien property custodians.

To Meet Harding.
They are Sir Lomer Gouin, minister of justice; A. B. Copp, secretary of state; William Pugsley, Canadian representative before the claims committee; D. K. Newcomb, deputy minister of justice, and Thomas M. Mulvey, undersecretary of state. Major Ralph, Canadian custodian of alien property, is expected to arrive tomorrow. The ministers will be entertained at luncheon tomorrow by Secretary of State Hughes and later in the day will be received by the president.

The quiet appointment of the commission which has not been heralded in Canada is understood to suggest a method by which the Canadians will meet the objections to their appointment of a permanent minister. They recently negotiated a fisheries treaty with the United States on their own account and apparently propose to handle each important question directly as it arises.

Objection Explained.
The decision of the McKenzie King government not to appoint a resident minister here until the imperial council has passed on the question, is understood to be due to the objection within his own cabinet represented by the attitude of W. S. Fielding, minister of finance. While ostensibly here on alien property matters, it has been suggested in Canada that the dominion is now prepared to reopen negotiations on the Great Lakes—St. Lawrence canal question.

The question which the present delegation will take up arises out of the fact that certain securities, chiefly of the Canadian Pacific railway, impounded by the American alien property of German nationals domiciled in Canada.

On the other hand, the Canadians have possessed themselves of properties owned by German nationals of American origin. It has been suggested as important that a general rule bearing on this question should be adopted by both countries.

The visiting Canadian delegation, it is believed may also take up with American officials the final determination of the new substitute for the Rush-Bagot treaty governing armaments on the Great Lakes which has been unaccountably hanging fire, although it is understood to have been practically completed.

The new loan is expected to be retired largely by tax receipts in the next two quarterly payments. The interest rate will be four per cent, slightly lower than previous offerings of government securities have paid.

Oklahoma Situation Grave.
Oklahoma City, June 10.—Flood conditions in northwestern and northern Oklahoma assumed grave proportions as the result of heavy rains during the past two days.

Hampton Church Celebrates Its Golden Jubilee

Zion Lutheran Congregation Has Identified Itself With Progress of State—Now Has Schools.

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.
Hampton, Neb., June 10.—Zion Evangelical Lutheran congregation four miles northeast of Hampton celebrated the golden jubilee of its organization today.

Two services were held, one beginning at 10 a. m. and the other at 3 p. m. A sacred concert was given in the evening. The jubilee speaker in the morning was Rev. Theodore Moelling of Cincinnati, former pastor of the congregation.

Rev. C. F. Brommer, present pastor, addressed the surviving charter members. Rev. H. Moelling of Snyder, Neb., spoke in the afternoon. A male choir, directed by Prof. J. T. Suhr, and a mixed choir, directed by Prof. E. Lueters, sang at both services.

The early history of Zion church is closely associated with the pioneer history of Nebraska, the first members, Martin Werth and family, settling in Hamilton county in October, 1868.

Two of the charter members now living are widows of civil war veterans. Martin Werth's nearest neighbors were eight miles away and the nearest family of his fifth was 20 miles away. Werth and family were occasional uninvited visitors.

As soon as several other Lutheran families had come into this vicinity, all met for divine reading services in one of his old homes. Rev. K. Th. Gruber of Lincoln Creek was the first pastor preaching to them. This was in November, 1878.

Soon other Lutherans settled here, so a congregation was organized, which Rev. Mr. Gruber continued to serve until the fall of 1875, when the first resident pastor, Rev. G. P. Burger of Stanton, Neb., accepted a call.

Rev. Mr. Burger was succeeded by Rev. Theodore Moelling of Brazil Mills, Neb., who, in turn, was succeeded by the present pastor, Rev. Mr. Brommer, formerly of Beatrice.

The first church, now used for school purposes, was built in 1877; the second in 1883; the third in 1897. From the first, the church strove to give its youth a thorough Christian education, and has provided a day school. Since 1915 it has two such schools, one near the church and one four miles north. Two male teachers, fully accredited by the state of Nebraska, are in charge of these schools.

The following have in turn served in the congregation's schools: K. Kuzland, Rev. Mr. Burger, Prof. Eug. Schulz, Prof. J. Sagehorn, Prof. R. Meyer, Prof. K. Firnhaber, Prof. J. T. Suhr and Prof. E. Lueters.

The congregation possesses a church, two schools, a parsonage, a teacher's dwelling, and 25 acres of land.

The church record shows that during the 50 years, 1,059 persons have been baptized, 657 confirmed, 197 couples united in marriage, and 278 members buried. Through three daughter congregations have been branched off in the course of time, the mother church still numbers 476 baptized souls, 312 communicants, confirmed members over 14 years of age and 99 voting members, and 92 children in school.
